

NORTHBEACH HOMES IN TO WIN A MAJOR PROPERTY AWARD

There's even more good news for the UK property market and its related professionals this week as the results of the Daily Mail UK Property Awards 2009 have been revealed. Rightly proud of its success, Northbeach is delighted to announce that it has won an award in the category of 'Best Renovation' for its development in Queen's Gate Gardens, South Kensington. Winners will be invited to attend a high profile gala dinner at the Marriott Hotel in London's Grosvenor Square on Friday, October 16th where they will be presented with their awards.

The event is part of the International Property Awards, the world's most prestigious competition dedicated to finding the best real estate professionals across the globe. The fact that Northbeach has won one of these coveted awards is proof that it is not only able to compete at this level but also triumph within the highly competitive UK property arenas.

Later this year, top scoring winners from the UK Property Awards will compete against other winning companies from Asia Pacific, Europe & Africa, the Americas and Arabia to find the ultimate World's Best in each category.

Entries were judged by a panel of professionals whose collective knowledge of the property industry is second to none and unsurpassed by any other property awards. This year's judges included Eric Pickles MP, chairman of the Conservative Party, Ben Wood, industry head property markets of Google UK; Peter Bolton King, group chief executive of the National Federation of Property Professionals; Imtiaz Farookhi, chief executive of the National House Building Council; Christopher Hall, president elect of FIABCI; Wilhelm Harnish, Master Builders of Australia (MBA); Thijs Stoffer, International Consortium of Real Estate Agents Association (ICREA); Helen Shield, editor-in-chief of International Homes Luxury Collection magazine and Gillian Farr, head of design of Laura Ashley Home.
